

Announcements

February 6, 2012

Today during lunch the track team will be selling carnations for Valentine's Day. You pay two dollars and fill out a card for the person you want to send a carnation to and the flower will be delivered to that person on Valentines' Day.

The Ruriteen Club will meet this Thursday, February 9th at 2:30 in the library.

Next Friday is the last day to turn in your gently used blue jeans for the Ruriteen Jean Project for the homeless. Clean out your closets and bring them to Guidance.

Early bird Prom tickets are on sale during all lunch periods for $40.00 each. The price will go up to $50.00 each after February 24th.

Spring bowling practice will begin on Tuesday Feb 14th. This is open to anyone who is interested in bowling!! It will run for 8 weeks. Practice will start at 3:30. There will be an $11.00 charge each week. When you finish the 8th week you will be given a new bowling ball or a pair of bowling shoes. If you have any questions you may see Coach Allen or Coach Potter.